From the great Andromeda Nebula, passing by Mars on its flight through the endless wide open and stars, arrives the new UFO EP by Miniload Records.

On board the extraterrestrial Sr-EE wondering if the story Adrian Martin has told him about Roswell is true. Recalling the deep and floating bass line and edgy groove of the story's first chapter he loses himself being sucked from the addictive first into the second chapter.

Higuchi – Sonidos del dentro has always been the darkest part of the story. Hearing voices and noises as if you were swimming under the sand of Roswell's desert yet feeling the caress of the warm sound conduction, being driven to dig deeper into your consciousness, so you can make it to The second Day – Dario Rohrbach & Breandan Davey.

The third and final chapter ends in a classic ruttish happy-ending manner. You feel carried away on magnetic, unobtrusive beats and clear bodywork of sounds. Sr-EE will be landing on planet earth soon, anxious and excited but ready to find out, if all of the story's three chapters will match the future reality he is to expect.... What will it be in the desert of Roswell, find out on...
